Diversity is our reality.

Australia is one of the most culturally and linguistically diverse nations in the world. Australia's First Peoples represent more than 250 language groups and the oldest living and continuous culture. More than one-quarter of Australians are born overseas and almost half of all Australians have at least one parent born overseas.

Collectively, we speak more than 200 languages, and languages other than English are spoken by more than one-fifth of the population.

Amid this diversity we enjoy relative harmony. Our standards of living and levels of social cohesion rank among the highest in the world. However, the benefits of migration and multiculturalism are not being enjoyed by all.

We are a nation of disparate narratives. Australia's population and economic distribution is polarised, with communities experiencing either:

- Rapid growth; or,
- Stagnation and decline.

The continued success of multicultural Australia will depend on our ability to embrace diversity, foster social cohesion and build economic success in the face of complex population challenges.

Inclusion is a choice.

The social, cultural, economic and civic challenge lies in how communities embrace diversity and harness its strengths. Of all tiers of government, local government are best placed to understand the complexity and diversity of their communities and facilitate a whole-of-community approach.

The Welcoming Cities Standard exists to support local councils and their communities in the advancement of Australia as a welcoming, prosperous and cohesive nation.

Welcoming Cities

Our Objectives

1

Receiving communities are welcoming and actively engage with migrant communities.

2

Local councils and community stakeholders have networks and resources that facilitate effective planning for welcoming and inclusion.

3

Local councils have comprehensive plans and active messaging for cultural diversity and inclusion in policy, multi-sector engagement, activities and economic development approaches.

4

Local councils are committed to facilitating a whole-of-community approach to building social & cultural inclusion, economic engagement and civic participation.

Welcoming Cities supports local councils and community leaders through a network built around:

Local councils participate as members of the Welcoming Cities network, while community organisations, businesses and other government agencies can get involved as supporters. Both members and supporters access key offerings of the network.

Building social cohesion requires contribution and collaboration from all community stakeholders and the role of local councils is to invite and facilitate this interaction.

Knowledge Sharing

Supporting local governments to access evidence-based research, resources, policies and case studies.

Partnership Development

Facilitating & resourcing multi-sector partnerships to maximise learning, reach and impact.

Celebrating Success

Recognising local governments that demonstrate leading practice and innovation in welcoming efforts.

Standard + Accreditation

Setting the National Standard for cultural diversity and inclusion policy and practice in Local Government.

Our Mission

Supporting local councils and
community leaders
to leverage the ideas
and innovation that come from being welcoming and inclusive.

The Scope

The Welcoming Cities Standard is a central element of the Welcoming Cities network. The Standard establishes the framework for local councils to:

1

Benchmark their cultural diversity and inclusion policies and practices across the organisation;

2

Identify where and how further efforts could be directed; and,

3

Assess progress over time.

The other elements of the network support as well as enhance the purpose of The Standard.

The Standard is applicable to all local councils in Australia. This includes cities, shires, towns, or municipalities. Councils can access and progress through the Standard according to their capacity and resources. We describe these stages (from lowest to highest) as Established, Advanced, Excelling, and Mentoring (see Assessment, p. 32).

The extent to which local councils measure their activity against the Standard will be based on their understanding of their community's needs. It is noted that local councils are already addressing elements of the Standard. The Standard validates existing efforts and recognises the connections to fostering cultural diversity and inclusion.

We also recognise the important and complementary work of various Standards, Plans, Charters and Networks. Such as, Reconciliation Actions Plans, Age-friendly Cities, Child-friendly Cities, and Rainbow Tick. Welcoming Cities Standard seeks to intersect with, rather than duplicate, their efforts.

Terms and Definitions

For the purpose of this document, the following terms and definitions apply.

Accessible Information

Information that is culturally sensitive and available to communities in many languages, including simple Australian English and in formats relying on icons, symbols, and images, to convey content and meaning. Distribution is via a wide range of channels and mediums including digital, in-language radio, community media, traditional media, printed materials, and via trusted agents within communities.

Culturally Diverse Groups

Individuals, groups and communities that are indicative of the cultural and linguistic diversity of people in the local council area.

Local Council/s

The local government authority (LGA) that is being assessed against the Standard. Local councils can include cities, shires, towns, or municipalities.

Migrant/s, Migrant Community/ies

Individuals of any immigration status born overseas. They can include culturally and linguistically diverse (CALD) people, refugees, people seeking asylum, and temporary or permanent residents.

Receiving Community/ies

All Australian-born residents not covered under the definition of migrant community. This includes Indigenous communities and previous generations of migrants.

Social Cohesion

The willingness of members of a society to cooperate with each other in order to survive and prosper. Social cohesion broadly incorporates five domains:

- Belonging;
- Social justice and equity;
- Participation;
- Acceptance and rejection legitimacy; and,
- Worth.

Social Inclusion

The act of enabling all groups of people within a society to have a sense of belonging and to be able to participate in community life. It is based on fundamental values of equity, equality, social justice, and human rights, as well as on the principles of acceptance and embracing diversity.

Substantive Equality

Principles that seek to address systemic discrimination in service delivery; recognising that policies and practices put in place to suit the majority of clients may appear to be nondiscriminatory but may not address the specific needs of certain groups of people. In effect they may be indirectly discriminatory, creating systemic discrimination.

Volunteering

Time willingly given for the common good and without financial gain. Including, activities which are ad hoc, informal, non-organised, private or within small communities.

Welcoming Cities

A local council that has committed to, communicated, planned, built and/or sustained a welcoming community; and is assessed against The Standard as such.

Our Vision

A network of welcoming and cohesive cities and regions where everyone can belong and participate in social cultural, economic and civic life.

A Guide to Reading the Standard

The Standard is organised under the following six (6) categories:

- 1.0 Leadership

Each category contains principles, criteria and indicators that can be applied by a local council through existing or new policies and practices.

The Standard is also framed around the local council as a facilitator of community stakeholders. It is expected that criteria will often be met through the support of, or in collaboration with, local stakeholders.

Compliance and Good Practice

The International Social and Environmental Accreditation and Labelling (ISEAL) Alliance defines a Standard as a “document that provides, for common and repeated use, rules, guidelines or characteristics for products or related processes and production methods, with which compliance is not mandatory”.

ISEAL views a Standard as a powerful market-based approach for creating positive social, environmental, and economic change, and driving transformation in how entities deliver goods and/or services. A Standard defines what is expected and sustainable for a particular sector, drives and maintains change with a verification process, and has additional tools and activities in place for tracing certified goods and/or services. Through all of this, a Standard brings together all entities in the ecosystem and builds their capacity as they move from baseline to higher performance standards.

Standards are living documents that reflect societal understanding of good practice for a given sector or industry. As such, the Standard will evolve over time.

New insights gained from implementation of the standard, plus increased interest from stakeholders due to uptake of the Standard, will yield new knowledge and improvements that need to be integrated into the Standard's requirements. Common practice is to review a standard every three to five years and Welcoming Cities is committed to continuous improvement.

The development of The Welcoming Cities Standard has been guided by ISEAL's Codes of Good Practice and Credibility Principles.

In the development of this Standard, Welcoming Cities has extensively consulted international, national and local stakeholders, including peak bodies, government associations, commissions and all tiers of government.

“ Standards are living documents that reflect societal understanding of good practice for a given sector or industry. As such, the Standard will evolve over time. ”
