

Attachment I - Confidential Recommendations: Cultural Development Fund Recovery grants 2021 - Successful

Project Name	Applicant	Art Form	Project Summary	Amount Recommended	Amount Requested	Project location
Work Shop	Nina Sanadze	Other / multi-disciplinary	A short activation of a vacant retail property Carlisle Street to host a vibrant, eight-day arts program. The SeV=n collective will undertake six open-studio residency days, bookended by Sunday festival days; featuring a variety of scheduled public workshops, music and live performance, and pop up exhibitions.	$12,000	$12,000	Balaclava
Unplugged in St Kilda	St Kilda Historical Society	Music/ Cultural Heritage	A project focussed on exploring and preserving the history of music in St Kilda, focusing on the 1970s, 1980s and 1990s. It will include three live Q&A sessions with bands or artists from these time periods, and interviews with a selection of others to create a podcast series.	$12,000	$12,000	St Kilda
Future Dreaming – Visions of the Future	The Torch project	Visual Arts	An exhibition of artworks created by 130 Indigenous artists confined to Victorian prisons in 2021. Artists will be asked to paint a brighter future for themselves, their families and communities. To be presented at the Torch’s new exhibition space.	$10,500	$10,500	St Kilda
The Bare Floor Project	Emma Fawcett	Dance	A community arts program that offers artistic mentorship for 4 female performing artists with access requirements to develop new solo performance pieces. The program will include creative movement workshops for up to 80 female community members, encouraging social, physical and creative well-being and connection.	$10,000	$12,000	South Melbourne & East St Kilda

Attachment I - Confidential Recommendations: Cultural Development Fund Recovery grants 2021 - Successful

Nebula	Arts Access Victoria	Other/ multi-disciplinary	The bespoke accessible mobile arts space Nebula will play host to local disabled artists and inclusive groups to host workshops and events in forecourt outside South Melbourne Town Hall to provide an accessible, affordable and COVID safe platform to reconnect the community to inclusive arts practice and events.	$10,000	$12,000	South Melbourne
Rope Burn	Katie Cawthorne	Performance / theatre	Rehearsal and presentation of ROPE BURN; a piece of physical theatre exploring the mythologies that position women as inferior to men. Five male performers will navigate and experience the imposed behavioural expectations that are placed upon women in Western society. At Gasworks Theatre.	$12,000	$12,000	Albert Park
Artist in residence program: children environment and art	Poets Grove Family and Children's Centre	Visual Arts	Elizabeth Milsom, a local printmaking artist will work with children, educators and community through a series of workshops to experiment with natural materials found in the area, giving them new life, creating artworks of lasting memories; to be showcased in an exhibit.	$9,600	$9,600	Elwood
Heavy Mettle	Tahsmadada	Performance / theatre	Creative development of a new multidisciplinary work re-uniting the arts in community collaboration that created unHOWsed at Theatre Works, 2019. The new work will look behind these women's story to reveal the women that inspired them.	$10,000	$12,000	St Kilda
Herd	Alyson Campbell	Performance / Theatre	HERD is a new music theatre work and a collaboration between queer performance collective wreckedAllprods. HERD will explore queer community, herd immunity, pandemics and queerness. When do many voices become one? When does group become herd? Performance at Theatre Works.	$12,000	$12,000	St Kilda

Attachment I - Confidential Recommendations: Cultural Development Fund Recovery grants 2021 - Successful

The Treasure of Church Square	Artefact Church Square Inc	Writing	The creation of a book about the past and future of St Kilda's Church Square in Acland Street using research material already completed by Gail Hastings	$7,000	$7,000	St Kilda
Streets of South Melbourne	David Miller - Stinchcombe	Visual Arts	Inspired by the 1949 folio "Our Street", by South Melbourne artist, Maurie Carter, this project is a re-imagining of artistic social commentary. A series of historic images will be recreated in chalk on the streets of South Melbourne, in locations that link to the narratives in the original art.	$10,000	$10,000	South Melbourne
A-Ticket, A-Tasket, a Green and Yellow Basket	Space2B	Visual Arts	To develop two public artworks in the laneway behind Space2b exploring the community's preoccupations during Covid restrictions. Murals will re-present the games children played during lock down as well as the surrounding fauna and flora.	$12,000	$12,000	East St Kilda
Paint Out	Gasworks Arts Park Inc	Visual Arts	An innovative community event that enables both artists and viewers to enjoy the benefits of creating art in the open air. Artists will paint, draw or sketch a scene from the parklands within a 3-hour window which will then be featured in a group exhibition.to Elwood's rich environment and history.	$1,000	$4,500	Albert Park
Every Lovely Terrible Thing	Lab Kelpie	Performance / Theatre	Presentation of a main stage queer focussed family drama exploring the links between family and identity. Season of this 2021 Midsumma Queer Playwriting Award finalist, will be presented at Gasworks Theatre.	$8,500	$8,500	Albert Park
Distant Shores	Anna Monea	Visual Arts	Creation and exhibition of large scale photographic works portraying 12 participants from cultural and linguistically diverse communities attending Elwood/St Kilda Learning Neighbourhood House and Space2b.	$12,000	$12,000	Elwood /East St Kilda

Attachment I - Confidential Recommendations: Cultural Development Fund Recovery grants 2021 - Successful

Yield to Resistance	Sandra Parker	Dance	Development and presentation of a collaborative dance work and event 'Resistance' at the Temperance Hall. Sandra Parker's choreography will respond to the endurance of Covid lockdowns and using physical distancing as a choreographic parameter.	$12,000	$12,000	South Melbourne
Birthday Book of Storms	Alex Menglet	Performance / Theatre	A collaboration with Book of Dreams Theatre Company to present rehearsed readings of the new play 'Birthday Book of Storms' about iconic poets, at Elwood St Kilda Neighbourhood Learning Centre with a cast of culturally and linguistically diverse actors.	$6,988	$6,988	Elwood
When the Rain Stops Falling	Hugh Owens	Performance / Theatre	A production of the iconic play by Andrew Bovell with an environmental message. An independent Iron Lung Theatre collaboration will include a season at Theatre Works.	$12,000	$12,000	St Kilda
WellBless	Lauren Steiner	Performance / Theatre	WellBless is a play exploring the parasitic nature of the wellness industry that lures people away from medical advice, which is particularly relevant in this worldwide pandemic. To be presented at Theatre Works	$11,323	$11,323	St Kilda
The Thrill of The Reveal	Gerard O'Connor	Visual Arts	A Series ten large format photographic images and films about a disease affecting St Kilda LGBTIQ residents; based on the experiences of local people and exhibited in various venues in Fitzroy Street.	$9,000	$12,000	St Kilda