

artsbus Project – Artist for Kids Culture

The artsbus Project will offer 30 free arts programs with professional artists for children aged 5 - 14 years in Port Phillip across April to November 2025 at Park Towers and the South Melbourne Open Studio.

$12,000

"Thrive" -Rooming House Triennial – Sacred Heart Mission

A triennial visual arts exhibition of twenty emerging and established artists from Sacred Heart Mission's Rooming House Art program. The artists invite the community to view the exhibition and reflect on life, recovery and change art at Gasworks Arts Park.

$6,800

En Masse – Rawcus Theatre Company

A new projection installation featuring the award winning diverse Rawcus Ensemble. En Masse explores bodies in public space and the shifting power dynamics of groups. En Masse will be installed on the exterior of St Kilda Library and will celebrate the diversity in Port Phillip

$12,000

Design By Touch – Kristin Burgham

An accessible ceramics workshop using sensory experience and touch to design objects. With support workers on hand and guide dogs welcome, this socially engaging and vibrant arts-based event is inclusive, empowering, and accessible to all makers in the City of Port Phillip.

$12,000

Linden Sculpture Commission – Linden New Art

The Linden Sculpture Commission project will use gallery's public garden as a site for the presentation of ambitious contemporary sculpture. Linden will present the work of internationally acclaimed artist Leeroy New, made in conjunction with local secondary-school art students.

$12,000

Keep in Touch – Louise Samuelsson

An accessible project presenting a craft art exhibition, sustainable embroidery workshops, and two supper clubs in October 2025 at Gasworks Arts Park. These events will foster connection through creativity.

$8,342

St Kilda Tales: A Live Performance Rave – Victorian Theatre Company

A performance of “St Kilda Tales” by Australian playwright Raimondo Cortese is a collection of interconnected storylines born from the streets of St Kilda and live-performance improvisation at the Alex Theatre

$10,000

Blood Wedding - Tashmadada

A collaboration between the Tashmadada ensemble and students of the South Melbourne JMC Academy, “Blood Wedding” by Federico Garcia Lorca, will be performed at Theatre Works.

$12,000

Necessary Object – Sandra Parker

A creative development and presentation of a new performance-installation "Necessary Object" by Choreographer Sandra Parker to be presented at Carlisle St Artspace, St Kilda Town Hall.

$6,000

Girt (by sea)- Dr Lisa Anderson

A photographic exhibition using infrared images of Port Phillip’s shoreline and wetlands to explore the environmental concerns for these fragile places. Images created will be exhibited as projection works using the gardens and verandas of Linden New Art.

$10,000

Into The Limelight 20 jokes: writing and filming – Michael Crane

To write and produce, in partnership with Arts Access Victoria, a series of short comedy films featuring people with a mental illness. To be screened at the 2025 St Kilda Film Festival.

$12,000

Chanukah 2025 – We Support You

A free community cultural event to celebrate Channukah (The Jewish Festival of light) to be hosted in parks across the City of Port Phillip and its surrounds, will include candle lighting, traditional food and activities.

$6,000

Stage 2 St.Kilda walk of Art – Colin Sheppard

The creation of new public artworks in Little Grey Street, honouring diverse community members Vali Myers and Aunty Janet Galpin and highlighting their contributions to Port Phillip's history.

$6,000