

Attachment I - Confidential Recommendations: Cultural Development Fund Projects grants 2021/22 - Successful

Project Number	Project Name	Applicant	Art Form	Project Summary	Amount Recommended	Amount Requested	Project location
1.	If these walls could talk...	Lord Somers Camp and Power House	Visual Arts	A project that will celebrate the local community through a street art mural painted on the walls of Power House at Albert Park Lake. The project will engage the community through artist-led consultations that will guide the creative inspiration and tell the stories of the work of Power House.	$10,000	$12,000	Albert Park
2.	The Valentine's Day Poetry Massacre	Michael Crane	Music	Well known musicians will perform in a program that includes one new original song and recitation of a favourite love song lyric to showcase the poetry of song-writing to a broader audience To be held at Memo Music Hall.	$10,000	$12,000	St Kilda
3.	St Kilda Writers Week - Chapters	St Kilda Arts Tourism Association Inc.	Writing	Celebrating the written word showcasing authors, poets, songwriters, journalists, bloggers, playwrights, screen writers. Presenting Chapter One of planned regular Chapters throughout 2022, with multiple events in St Kilda venues, theatres, bookshops, restaurants, galleries and outdoors.	$12,000	$12,000	St Kilda
4.	Night Dreams Dark Rides	Jane Burton	Visual Arts	Presentation of new work for a solo exhibition at Linden New Art: Projects Space, based on historically significant and culturally recognised site of Luna Park, with printed works on glass plates.	$7276.50	$7276.50	St Kilda

Attachment I - Confidential Recommendations: Cultural Development Fund Projects grants 2021/22 - Successful

5.	The Decameron Project: Tribes and Fables	Red Stitch Actors Theatre	Performance/theatre	An exploration of storytelling as an act of self-care in crisis. Drawing on the medieval text 'The Decameron' and workshops conducted during 2020-2021, 11 artists from 7 different cultural and linguistic backgrounds will develop a script, with a showing to be presented at Red Stitch Theatre	$10,000	$10,000	East St Kilda
6.	Tales from the Jetty	Melbourne Writers' Theatre	Performance/theatre	Melbourne Writers' Theatre, in partnership with Gasworks Arts Park, will present a new theatrical work modelled on the 2019 co-production 'Beachside Stories', and will celebrate four organisations who have contributed to the City of Port Phillip and other communities.	$12,000	$12,000	Albert Park
7.	Anything You Can Do: Community Engagement Workshops	Dominic Weintraub	Other / multidisciplinary	Presenting a series of six intergenerational performance making workshops facilitated by Pony Cam collective; creating space for locals aged 60+ to meaningfully connect, exchange, and collaborate with a group of emerging artists, while teaching skills in creative writing, and contemporary performance.	$ 5,671	$ 5,671	South Melbourne / Port Melbourne
8.	Elwood Singing Walking Trail - Presentation	Jeannie Marsh	Music	To complete Stage Two of the Elwood Singing Walking Trail project, culminating in a public launch in May 2022. Professional arts-workers join Elwood Community Choir to create song recordings, digital and tangible infrastructure, to support this innovative, accessible musical walk around Elwood.	$9,000	$12,000	Elwood

Attachment I - Confidential Recommendations: Cultural Development Fund Projects grants 2021/22 - Successful

9.	Common Ground 22	SouthPort Community Centre / City of Voices	Performance/Theatre	Inclusive theatre group City of Voices will create a multimedia performance exploring our connection to and love of the City of Port Phillip. Through performances at 'The Nebula' and Gasworks Theatre, the project will celebrate the streets and suburbs that form our Common Ground.	$12,000	$12,000	South Melbourne / Albert Park
10.	HH-DIG: The Danceworks Years	Helen Herbertson	Dance	Creative development at Temperance Hall, drawing on Herbertson's creative output as Artistic Director, Danceworks (89-97), with original cast, and new collaborators. With future goal of exhibition/live performance at a local gallery/venue (2023) sharing Danceworks' contribution to the City of Port Phillip.	$12,000	$12,000	South Melbourne
11.	St Kilda Lives	Ben Wijay	Other / multidisciplinary	To develop and publish a free tabloid style art paper (creative writing, poetry, illustration, photography) to be distributed locally.	$12,000	$12,000	St Kilda
12.	St Kilda 1841-1900: Movers and Shakers and Money-makers	St Kilda Historical Society	Heritage	A heritage project to engage community interest and in the social history of nineteenth century St Kilda; designed to make it more inviting and accessible. Old and new images will enliven the presentation of a new scholarly work, St Kilda 1841-1900: Movers and Shakers and Money-makers.	$ 8,500	$ 8,500	St Kilda
13.	Under the Beach, Under the City	Lynda Roberts	Other / multidisciplinary	A Public Assembly collaborative artist project would like to present an ephemeral sculpture and participatory public artwork, inviting beachgoers during the summer of 2022 to explore the ways we use our public spaces, utilising beach art activities as a whimsical metaphor.	$12,000	$12,000	Elwood / St Kilda

Attachment I - Confidential Recommendations: Cultural Development Fund Projects grants 2021/22 - Successful

14.	No Ball Games Allowed	Kitan Petkovski	Performance/theatre	Presentation of a new play by transgender artist Kristen Smyth and St Kilda theatre-maker Kitan Petkovski. This work explores themes of trauma, trust, authenticity and the collapse of life in a time of crisis. The premiere will be at Theatre Works,	$10,000	$12,000	St Kilda
15.	Theatre Works Midsumma Festival Hub	Theatre Works	Other / multidisciplinary	Theatre Works will partner with Midsumma Festival to become a creative hub with a focus on nurturing queer arts innovators that embrace risk taking, rebellion and resilience. Two emerging LGBTQI+ artists/ companies will be mentored and supported by professional practitioners to produce and present their new work.	$11,600	$11,600	St Kilda
16.	Betty	Jules Allen	Performance / Theatre	To present the premiere season of 'Betty'; a harrowing and heartfelt exploration of dementia through a complex mother/daughter relationship challenged by cultural clashes, and long-buried secrets. To be held at Theatre Works	$10,927	$10,927	St Kilda
17.	Dunes Rolling Down Dunes	Benjamin Hurley	Dance	A collaborative creative development for of a new full-length contemporary dance work to be titled 'Dunes Rolling Down Dunes' at Temperance Hall.	$12,000	$12,000	South Melbourne
18.	Port Metaverse Walk	Luhsun Tan	Other / multidisciplinary	The Port Metaverse walk is a local AR augmented reality public art exhibition made up of virtual digital installations spread across St Kilda on a walking tour that are viewed in a digital metaverse that can be accessed by the public using smart phones.	$10,000	$12,000	St Kilda